Are you a mind, body, spirit coach wanting more sales from your online programs?

Is your marketing generating the results you need?

Are you getting enough global reach with your courses and consults?

Would you like to build online programs on a platform that did all the marketing for you, with no signup or subscription fees?

What if you could have a global impact with unlimited reach on a site that is 100% optimised to deliver wellness programs?

OneQuest coaches are building courses, selling programs and booking consults all over the world, touching the hearts, minds and souls of wellness enthusiasts. Our coaches can create unlimited content while maintaining 100% rights to their IP, customised for students at all levels with a comprehensive online profile featured with their bio, qualifications and links to their socials and website for greater exposure.

Why sell your program with OneQuest?

We make it easy to sell unlimited online programs, courses and therapies on a niche wellness platform optimised for Yoga, Meditation, Health, Nutrition, Fitness, Spiritual, Mindfulness and Breathwork training.

Through partnerships with our coaches, OneQuest offers great branding and sales opportunities:

- ✓ Your programs are advertised and promoted through OneQuest, social, Google and other marketing channels for FREE.
- ✓ A comprehensive coach profile with its own dedicated web page that features your biography, areas of expertise, profile photo, introduction video, social handles and links to your website for direct sales.
- ✓ A OneQuest partner badge to display on your website and link back to your courses and therapies.
- ✓ Additional exposure through blog articles, podcast interviews and book collaboration, marketed directly to students.
- ✓ For the ultimate exposure, the opportunity for your teachings to be featured in our online Retreats.

How we support program creation

As a premier online course provider, it is important that the quality of coach videos are of a high standard so students have a wonderful experience and are encouraged to enrol into more of your courses. To assist, we support content creation with:

- ✓ Tips for producing your course videos including recommendations for scripting, lighting, audio, video, editing and filming locations.
- ✓ Simple checklists for preparing your videos for Vimeo and uploading them to your account.
- ✓ Step by step instructions for uploading your course content and creating a coach profile.
- ✓ Video production and editing (if required).

If you require assistance with your course design or creation, contact our support team on +61 2 4086 9901.

Your infinite potential

What is your investment?

We recommend that coaches produce comprehensive courses, therapies, profiles and video content to maximise their exposure, branding and sales on OneQuest.

- ✓ Create courses to sell on the OneQuest website which include a course image, introduction video and course description. A range of videos and any additional information for session modules in the course. Lesson notes for students to download (where applicable). Spotify or Apple Music playlists as background music for module videos.
- ✓ If selected, a video submission can be featured in our online Retreats to showcase your incredible teachings.
- ✓ A Vimeo account to upload and stream your content from, which you manage. This ensures the protection of your Intellectual Property and allows you to use your videos across multiple applications.
- ✓ Feature a professional profile including your biography, association memberships and qualifications, an introduction video, a profile photo, social handle links and website address (if applicable).
- ✓ Promote therapies to sell on the OneQuest website which include a therapy image and introduction video about the session. Detailed description of the therapy and what questers will experience. Your timezone, availability, link for bookings and client assessment form upon purchase.
- ✓ Provide short daily hack videos to help us promote your teachings on OneQuest, social media and email newsletters.

Income paid

You create the program, course or therapy, you set the price and we sell it for you!

OneQuest actively promotes, advertises, and sells your courses and therapies, retaining a fixed percentage as a service fee. Coaches are paid monthly for purchases made in the month prior.

How to get started
